Dear Paul:

STAT
I had already dictated an answer to your recent letter about the cruise but held it up following your telephone call of the other day. I certainly wish we could join you but, alas, the chances do not look too favorable at the moment. I see no opportunity for getting away from here until sometime in June when I have a series of jobs to do in Europe; however, my plans are really too indefinite for you to count upon us.

Sincerely,

Allen D. Jones

MR. DULLES:

Capt. Paul Hammond called from New York this afternoon stating they planned to leave Rhodes on June 20 for a month sailing the Asia Minor Coast. The purpose of his call was to invite you and Mrs. Dulles to join them.

Dear Allen,

Congratulations on your straight-forward
talk to NAM.

Am delighted at even the prospects of your sailing with us. We will only be starting the last week in June from Rhodes I think and probably sailing the Asia Minor Coast most of July.

We usually end up at Athens and hope to charter our craft in August, so do think about those dates for joining us.

Yours, Paul.
